If there's one thing we like more than exciting slots, it's slots that are more likely to give us some money.

Did you know that every slot game gets an official Return to Player (RTP) figure, which is the percentage win rate that a player is expected to achieve? It's a great way to see which slots are more generous.

Clearly, the casino needs to make money, so you expect the RTP of all slots to be below 100%. So ideally, you want to find a slot you enjoy with a figure as close to 100% as possible.

In this guide, we give you 10 of the best RTP slots, many of which you can enjoy at TwinSpires Casino. Even if we don't have them online yet, we are always adding to our gaming catalog, so keep an eye out for new additions.

This curious offering is unlike other slots. It has more of a video poker mechanic, where you must make winning combinations of symbols but get the chance to hold a symbol space, which then acts on all 10 lines. It takes some getting used to, but the awesome RTP means you won't go broke trying.

This NetEnt classic is beloved by slots fans. When you bet the max coin amount, the RTP is unbeatable. The base game has three reels, looking like something from the 1960s slot machine – and a soundtrack to match. Win on the base game and either collect your winnings or take them to the Supermeter bonus game. There's a progressive jackpot feature, too.

Get your teeth into this gothic-themed slot and match winning spooky symbols in Count Dracula's famous castle. There's a Graveyard and a Super Graveyard Bonus, and just to remind you that things may not be as they seem, a Heart Attack Bonus.

Like Mega Joker, this is another old-school classic slot, where you can play the base game with three reels. But play the max coins, and you can activate the Supermeter bonus game across the top of the screen.

Where the Godfather is blood and guts, the Catfather slot is more cute and cuddly. Spin across five reels, with kitties forming winning lines in any direction. Trigger the free spins round and multiply any wins by four. Purrfect!

With a decent RTP of 98%, Blood Suckers pays out nicely and shouldn't bleed you dry. With five reels, 25 paylines, scatters, and wilds, you try to slay the Vampires, picking from coffins to win cash prizes. A cheery game it's not, but it's great fun.

The slot provider with the impossible name came up with a winner here. Jokerizer is a classic fruit machine, with cherries and lemons, plus bells and sevens. Seek out the Jokerizer mode and Mystery Win feature.

This is a follow-up to the smash-hit Rainbow Riches. You get to choose which bonus games to play, if you can trigger them, of course. Shoot for the Pots of Gold Bonus, the Magic Mushroom Bonus, or the Road to Riches Bonus.

Explore the galaxy far, far away as you attempt to land sequences of star symbols to a thumping soundtrack. With 10 paylines paying in both directions, there are many chances to win. Throw in stacked wilds and the free spins bonus features; it's a slot that's truly out of this world.

The Megaways feature means you have up to 248,832 ways to win on the White Rabbit slot. No wonder it has a decent RTP! It's inspired by Alice in Wonderland, with a Down the Rabbit Hole free spins feature and expanding Cupcake wild symbols.

If all this talk of slots gets you in the mood for fun spins, head over to TwinSpires Casino and take your pick. Right now, you can play Blood Suckers, Starmania, and White Rabbit Megaways. Good luck!

With the arrival of the new year, we are quite confident this year will be a better year than 2020 and we strongly believe this will also hold for new slot machine releases. Game developers have managed to outperform themselves year after year and 2021 should give us a few new classics — at least that's what we're fiercely hoping for.

With new casino launches rising to new records, companies trying to reinvent themselves, and people gambling online more than ever before, we hope to celebrate the new year with the best creativity and technology has waiting for us. Some of today's most popular casino slot machines were launched quite some time ago, but still manage to gather the crowds. In order to kick off the year in style, our casino experts have sorted out the best slot machines to play today. Here's all the information and tips you'll need to get the most out of slot games.

For the true slot fanatics amongst us, online casinos have done their best to make sure their websites are fully powered in the new year and help you get the most out of your online gambling experience in 2021. Not only will any proper online casino help you play online versions of old-fashioned slot machines, but will it also make you choose out of slot games with bonus features, 3D productions, Megaways launches, Megacusters games and all sorts of crossovers between slot machines and other popular games like bingo or monopoly.

The downside of having so many options to choose from is that it isn't easy to pick the best games online casinos actually have to offer. Nonetheless, we have managed to select 10 of the best slot games to play in 2021. Good thing about this top list? That each of these games is unique in its own way. Some online slots are very modern and high tech while others lean more towards classic slot machines. Whatever genre you fancy as a player, we're quite confident that you'll like them as much as we do.

When the high variance slot Immortal Romance was brought to the market by game developer Microgaming in 2011, online casino players immediately embraced this game en masse. The beautiful graphics, up to four different lucrative bonus features, and some highly entertaining mystery bonuses, provided the ultimate gaming experience to players and it still manages to do so about a decade later. And let's not forget the beautiful rock soundtrack Immortal Romance gives us. In fact, we have rarely encountered a soundtrack that fitted an online game this well. Immortal Romance managed to get the most out of the popularity of series and films such as Twilight and can be considered one of the best games in its genre.

Random Runner pretty much resembles the basic idea behind traditional slot machines you find in local bars, pubs and land based casinos — including all the standard symbols you come across in this game. The cool thing about Random Runner is that you can play this game on two screens and you can decide for yourself whether you play with both or choose just one of the options game developer Stakelogic gives you. Just make sure you realise that synchronised spinning means double the fun. This retro fruit machine game, launched in 2015, has an easy to understand and fully automatic spin function, making sure you don't have to worry about sitting in front of your computer or smartphone screen the whole time.

So far, the games we have cited on this page have been absolute classics. That may be somewhat less true for this Gemix video slot (despite it being launched in 2014), but that doesn't mean this game doesn't have the potential to become a classic in the next few years. This slot machine was launched by casino software developer Play'n Go and only managed to gain major popularity in 2019 and 2020, therefore making it rather unknown to a lot of players. Not only the large amount of bonus features, but also the mix of mystery prizes, cool upgrades, and other surprises it offers, could make the Gemix slot machine a game you should start considering in 2021 — that is: if you haven't already.

Ever since Starburst was released in online casinos, this top slot machine has been enormously popular amongst all sorts of players. The ongoing popularity of one of today's famous slots may have to do with the fact that this NetEnt production is just very easy to play. There are only a few control buttons and the game doesn't have any complicated rules or extra features you will need to think about. At the same time you can still win very large amounts, despite the game being so straightforward. Moreover, Starburst is unique (at least it was unique when it was launched), as you can win in two ways (from both left to right and from right to left). That way you have a lot more options to make your winning combinations.

In Gonzo's Quest, you'll need to follow Gonzo in his search for ancient treasures which are waiting for you somewhere in the lost city of gold: Eldorado. The game screen does not consist of traditional reels, but makes punters play on blocks of stone — also known as NetEnt's innovative Avalanche feature. These stones fall out of the screen while playing and the lucrative features make sure Gonzo will guide you right into the action from the moment you make your first spin. Along with the excellent graphical experience this game has to offer, Gonzo's Quest will take you on an unforgettable gaming adventure.

What is the best slot machine to play? Big Time Gaming may not have the largest portfolio of online slot machines available, but the games they launch all turn out to be very popular, especially amongst experienced punters. BGT's most played title is Bonanza, a high variance slot game with a game theme that takes you into the mines. Thanks to the unique setup of reels, you can earn up to 117,649 ways to win with every spin you make. Furthermore, there are a lot of wilds available and in the background there you'll hear equally hysterical and irresistible banjo music, either making you absolutely love it or hate it. In the bonus game you earn free spins with unlimited multipliers. The more winning combinations you make in this game, the higher the multiplier becomes. And the higher the multiplier, the more money you can win!

The fourth and third games of our top slot machine games list are Mega Fortune and Mega Fortune Dreams. The first version that was launched of this online slot is obviously Mega Fortune and thanks to the overwhelming popularity of this game amongst players, game developer NetEnt decided to release a sequel: Mega Fortune Dreams. We have listed the game right after each other, as both games are very similar, but also very popular amongst punters — making sure each of the launches deserves a spot in our top rated slot machines. In both Mega Fortune and Mega Fortune Dreams it's all about the three progressive jackpots both of them have to offer. The amounts of these jackpots can reach up to huge numbers, explaining why Mega Fortune and its successor have gained popularity at online casinos.

With the release of the Wolf Gold slot in 2017, Pragmatic Play has definitely earned itself some room amongst the big boys of the casino industry. This game has a rather South Western US theme, including buffalos, eagles and of course wolves. In the background you can see the outline of the famous Monument Valley and anyone who has ever been to this area will recognise it straight away. In Wolf Gold you can win two very nice bonus features: a jackpot game and an exciting free spins bonus with Mega symbols. To us Wolf Gold looks great, plays smoothly, and pays out well — making it the perfect mix for most slot players.

Arguably the most popular slot game of all time was launched in 2014 by Play'n Go, probably not knowing at the time it would turn out to be one of the greats. This slot game is often considered a direct counterpart to NetEnt's Starburst, both games usually making it to top 10 lists of best slot games. Different from Starburst, Book of Dead works with a (very) high variance, making sure you can win huge amounts. It is rather very hard not to see that Book of Dead is very similar to Greentube's Book of Ra, and while some players would call it a ripoff, others would call it a very good ripoff. Rich Wilde, the charming character of the Book of Dead-series, takes you on a mission to Egypt and your goal is to discover some ancient artefacts, meaning the treasure hunt is on as soon as you make your first spin.
