The Greek gambling market is strongly influenced by the country's intention to keep the state-run OPAP a monopoly, which, however, violates EU laws. Greece's gambling laws are being amended and it's expected that other online casinos will be able to get official Greek licenses again. Greek players can find relevant online casinos on gr.casino.guru.

Customer service is top-notch, with live chat, telephone, and email options. One of the cool things is that players can play games in demo mode even without an account.

We have seen many players who managed to win tens of thousands of euros and then gradually lost all of it during the next few days or weeks (or even faster) because they kept playing and didn't withdraw their winnings. That's why we recommend players to be smarter than that and take their winnings if they get lucky and win. And it always helps to play in reputable online casinos.

Casinos with more active players and higher revenues will not struggle to pay out big wins, so we generally consider them to be a safer choice.

It's also crucial for you to use your own personal information and make sure that everything you enter when creating an account is correct and truthful. Casinos always check the identity of players when they want to make their first withdrawal (at latest), so you won't be able to withdraw money from a casino if you use incorrect details.

That said, if you keep playing, you are much more likely to end up with a loss than with a profit. If you manage to win, we advise you to withdraw your money, because you will certainly lose if you keep wagering your money over and over again.

The payment methods (bank accounts, cards, internet wallets) you use to deposit money into your casino account should be yours and held in your own name. Using someone else's card, bank account, or wallet can lead to a permanent account closure and can be used as a reason for not paying out winnings.

This is quite a common myth in the gambling industry. The payout ratio (RTP) is not influenced by the casino you play at, but by the games you play. Generally speaking, if you play the same game at two different casinos, your chances of winning are the same, at least if we ignore factors like bonuses, promotional offers, etc.
