As part of the newly legalized sports betting in Arizona, 10 sports betting licenses will go to tribes in the state. It's still unclear which tribes will receive a license. However, given that the Tohono O'odham Nation operates four Arizona casinos, it is likely in the running. We will provide updates if anything changes and if and when the casino will launch a retail sportsbook on the premises.

There are still issues. Desert Diamond has decent lines and a nice sign up promo. Unfortunately, I had issues using the promo and was not awarded the full amount I won. After dealing with support I got everything fixed. It did take over a day so I wasn't able to use funds in the meanwhile. After I ended up wanting to withdraw, I had many issues with the withdrawal process. It took me over 8 days with support to officially diagnose the issue with withdrawal. There is only one way to withdraw, via bank account. This overall was a very frustrating process for a book that is rather average. The payout on the plus side came the very same day. Super impressed with that. Beyond the initial sign up promo, there is nothing to reel you back in. Just a 20% boost here and there. I appreciate the help support gave, even though it seems like they had their hands tied. Didn't seem like they knew what they could and couldn't do. Also, phone support is non-existent. They have a phone number but it goes straight to voicemail. You will be kind of scared to have your money in there, but at the end of the day it's a legal book so they have to pay you out. Good luck!

I usually use draft kings but decided to try this one because of the welcome promo of deposit match. Except even when you meet their requirements, your winnings are split in half for "bonus balance" which you cannot cash out. Scam. Bait and switch. How is this not technically stealing?? I'm not playing with Monopoly money here. If I bet 100 and win 300, I expect that 300. Not only 150 of it. Reached out to support to complain. Depending on their response and if they can rectify this, I'll definitely be taking anything they will give me back and leave. What a joke. It's not worth the headache, please read the reviews first and stay away. I really wish I read reviews first.

They will let you place a nice long parlay but when you win it they will have you jump hoops to withdraw it. Customer service seems to be via chat or email since phone service will take you to voicemail and if you show up to the casino they will tell you to use that app since it is supposedly handled through a third party. Once you do jump through their hoops they will find another issue to not pay you out and only give you back your initial deposit you make to place the wager. Stick to BetMgm or FanDuel. This app is a complete scam.
