There's nothing like the cry of there's gold in them there hills to make any prospector worth his salt sit-up and take notice – and that's exactly the cry that should make you want to try a few spins of Rival Gaming's classic 3-reel slot Gold Rush!

The adventure is set against the backdrop of mountains, and in the lake that runs through them it's believed that there's enough gold for everyone to claim a share. You also have to think of the river as the game's 1 pay-line, as anything you find either side of it will just turn out to be the false excitement of fool's gold.

However, what you can find is 6 different prize icons – all of which you can cash-in for enough for a few nights in the local saloon with lashings of showgirls and whiskey to boot.

Like any prospector, you'll need to speculate to accumulate. And you can do this by choosing to play 1, 2 or 3 coins on any spin of the reels. Prizes are mainly in proportion to the coins you stake – though the top prize is 33% bigger when you're playing 3 coins. Your prizes will also be multiplied by the value of your coins, and the value options range from 0.01 to 10.0.

Once the Gold Rush is underway, it's all about lining-up 3 matching icons to win yourself some prizes. There are 3 types of bars to try and find, which are the single bronze bars, the double silver bars, and the triple gold bars – and these respectively pay 3 to 9 coins, 5 to 15 coins, and 10 to 30 coins. You can even win by lining-up any combination of the three bars to win a smaller prize of 1 coin to 3 coins.

As you can cash all prize icons in for cash, you'll also want to find some cash-bags and three of these will pay 15 to 45 coins. However, the fun really starts when you find your filtering pans as these are ideal for helping you find plenty of gold and, of course, they'll also win you 20 to 60 coins.

It can be a lonely old life up there in those hills, and the advice and company of some grizzled old prospectors is the perfect way to pass the time – and lining-up three of them will also win you the top coin prize. You'll win 100 coins when playing 1 coin, 200 coins when playing 2 coins, but 400 coins when playing 3 coins.

Wild Prospectors also add an extra helping of fun to Gold Rush, and 1 Wild Prospector in any pay-line with 2 matching icons will see that icon's prize doubled. However, should you be lucky enough to line-up any icon with 2 Wild Prospectors, that icon's prize will be quadrupled.

Gold Rush is one of many of Rival Gaming's list of 3-reel slots, but Rival do a good job of changing-up the theme and the way the games play. Gold Rush especially benefits from the inclusion of the Wild Prospectors – and, after you've given it a try, you may also want to try other similar games such as Bust A vault, Eggstravaganza, Flea Market or Costume Party!

The California Gold Rush ran from the late 1840s to about 1855, a period of time in which thousands made their way into the wildernesses of California in search of gold in "them there hills". Naturally, that prospective hunt for gold in the cruel and luck driven world of the Wild West makes an excellent setting for a slot machine.

The iconography of the old West is a nice and easy one for any designer looking for an easily recognised theme. And the California gold rush, in particular, is a perfect fit for a slot machine where players speculate in their own hunt for riches.

Habanero's Gold Rush slot game plays on this theme to full effect with plenty of old timers, pack mules, dynamite and gold nuggets sprinkling the screen.

Gold Rush really excels in this area. The reels are beautifully designed with easy to recognise graphics and plenty of character.

These are all animated smoothly and with great flashiness when the reel spins and when a symbol is part of a winning combination in particular. Even the background is perfectly suited to the atmosphere of the game.

All of this is set to a quality low-key sound design which couples both music and ambient sound to make for an immersive playing atmosphere.

The game has a nice selection of fun bonus features (see below for details) and although the gameplay isn't anything special, it does well what it sets out to do.

There are the usual special symbols on Gold Rush: Wilds and Bonuses.

A golden nugget signified the Wild (aka "Substitute") symbol which plays as any symbol except a bonus and if you get three or more on a win line is also the most valuable regular symbol.

The dynamite symbol serves as both a Scatter and Bonus symbol. Hit three or more and you win a multiple of your bet per spin and trigger 10, 12 or 15 free spins depending on whether you hit three, four or five symbols respectively.

During the free spins, there is a Mine Collapse feature which can happen at random. When it does 3-15 of the same symbol will fall at random into the slots on your reels.

The game has low-volatility that may deter the more gamble happy of players, but with a return to player of 98.1% this slot machine is extremely tempting.

How much this appeals to you will depend on your bankroll and the reasons for playing. Bankroll in particular is important for this slot as with no ability to change the number of lines you play your only control over your bet per spin is coin size and number of coins per spin.

Gold Rush is a fun, well-designed game with great graphics and a high RTP.
