Although my experiences have been good, it is good for people to see what others have to say. I am sorry to see you had problems there though, as almost everyone else has positive things to say about them.

Good work belaff! Hopefully you can get that deposit in and cash out. I love High Noon and they do a good job with things. Are you playing from the U.S.?

The software built into High Noon Casino is that of the RTG software. This piece of software has enabled them to offer over 100 games, a high quality cashier, and total security. Backed by some of the best graphics and sounds of any type of casino software, High Noon provides their players with a piece of software that is easy to use, totally stable and even has tournaments and a flash casino that you can use if you would prefer not to download the software.

Video Poker and table game players are also covered. I counted 12 varieties of video poker on offer including Jacks or Better, All American, Deuces Wild and Joker Poker, with several of them also available in Bonus Poker mode. The table games run through Baccarat, several styles of Blackjack, Caribbean Stud, Red Dog, 3 Card Poker and more. Throw in both American and European style Roulette, Keno and a bunch of other parlour games and you have a "ghost town" full of fun at your disposal.

Legal issues surrounding online casinos are regularly debated, but High Noon has not been found to be violating the laws. If you decide you want to play with these games, you will see that they provide their users with a totally safe gaming experience. They are licensed out of the United Kingdom and subsequently provide their users with a gaming experience that is unmatched in quality in comparison to other USA legal gambling sites.

In terms of the table games, all of the staple casino games are here: Roulette, Craps, Blackjack, Red Dog, Three Card Poker, and More. I really like the feel of these games, but feel they play a bit fast. I have to pace myself in order to make sure that I don't play too many hands and potentially lose my bankroll.

bizarrea, that sounds pretty rough. I have PM'd you so if you would like my help just reply to the PM and I'll get in contact with them on your behalf.

I have been playing at High Noon since they first opened. I did clear bonus requirements twice a couple of years ago but never cashed out. Since then, it has been a long dry spell. Therefore, I wanted to tell my experience this month. Beginning January 08, 2015 to January 26, 2015, I made deposits of $55, $60, $49, $50, $52, $51, $35, $25, $25, $21, $55, $40, $77, $63, $50, $40. I used various deposit bonuses with the highest one being 77%. In total, I deposited almost $700 this month and never met any wagering requirement.

I have played at High Noon casino only with a no deposit bonus and at the time when I signed up, I received 65$ free chip. I didn't manage to clear wagering but I had a really nice time there. I was intrigued by their overall theme for the casino which is country style, that is something I haven't seen before and I enjoyed it. Also they have really great selection of games and the variety on instant play is good. Since they are one of club world casinos, I didn't deposit there at the time as I had some bad experiences, but now I have had some withdrawals from them so I think I might deposit here, as I think they have quite nice promotions.

Diceland's deposit methods are also fairly easy. You will find that they bring their players simple deposits through both credit cards and e-wallets. They have VISA, MasterCard and American Express as their primary credit cards, but they also accept MyPayLinq and MoneyLineWallet as e-wallets. These e-wallets open up even more opportunities for your funding, so you will be able to get started very easily.

their a little slower payers then their sister casinos ,,1 time gave me 100.00 chip15x play for being slow took 7 days to get paid Aladdin and Manhattan are the fastest Garbage casino, owed $150 but was denied due to the fact that I had registered many years ago with a "sister company" which I never even played on. Complete waste of time, and they look for reasons to not pay out. Look elsewhere.

Utilizing one of the least common themes out there is that of High Noon Casino. They use a western theme to offer their players a very interesting gaming location, and you will not be punished for doing so. If you are going to look into their service, you will find that they have enormous bonuses, bigger payouts and some of the most versatile options around. Should you decide to join High Noon, you will ultimately be joining up with some of the most impressive gambling around. We have explored this casino in order to figure out where our readers will be able to enjoy the options without too much trouble or ignorance.

Designed in an old-style Saloon, High Noon Casino is an RTG-based gambling website with good reputation, good bonus, but smaller than average number of games. Established in 2004, High Noon Casino has remained honest and reputable through the turbulent waters of the internet gambling industry and players can gamble here without worry – your winnings will be paid on time, your information is secure and the bonuses are plenty. Speaking of bonuses, High Noon Casino has two offers for first-time players. New customers can try the casino with $60 absolutely free, no deposit required, which is the only no-deposit bonus you can find from a good online casino these days. In addition to the no-deposit bonus, patrons of High Noon can also claim their 200% match bonus, worth up to $2,000 in free casino money. Daily promotions are also available, for example, right now the casino is running a 65% reload bonus for existing customers.

Specialty Games: 5 Diamond Blackjack, American/European/Multiplayer/French Roulette, Bonus Bingo, Sic Bo, Lucky 8's, Magic 7's, Craps and more.

I have an account in high noon and have made several cash outs all of the sudden i guess i made to many because when i tried to make another one for a 1000 with one method they cancelled it i called and asked why and no explanation was given to me i cashed out again and they cancelled it again and they cashed out part of it without my authorization using a different method that had large fees i called again asked of an answer and they said they did not know anything told me to send an email to the cashier which i did and no explanation was given i finally gave up and cashed out the remaining amount using the method with the large fees i waited about a week and had not received any of those two cash outs in my bank account so i called and they i assured me it takes 7 days which never does but i waited i confirmed my bank account make sure they sent it to the right one and they told me they did. today i got an email that the transactions were returned because the bank information was wrong according to them even though i had already made cash out using that method i called told all this to people from high noon and they just called me a liar that never happens and they don't make mistakes they only do what the customers request all of which is a lie, instead of trying to find out what they did wrong the high noon guy i talked to just told me that they did what i requested even though i re explained over and over again that i did not do one of those cash outs and that the bank information has been there for a while and i have done several cash outs prior to theses two using that method as well as the one that for some reason they did not want to explain they did not let me use this time i have played the other casino in that network i would recommend from this experience to use those or some other that are not from this network but definitely never play in high noon again or even for a first time because if they messed with a cash out once they will to do it again and again

High Noon Casino is the first online casino that I ever signed up with. I really liked the look of the site, as the Western theme is quite a bit better than a lot of other casinos out there.

$4000 per week. Limit does not apply to network progressive jackpot wins.

The games on offer are many and varied, especially when it comes to the slot machines. There are a huge selection of 3 and 5 reel machines on offer, both classic style and modern video slot games. Several of these - such as Aztec's Millions or Jackpot Pinatas - are tied to RTG networked progressive jackpot pools which could net you a massive payday (see elsewhere on this page for current values). You will also find smaller random progressive jackpots which are quite appropriately named - the Saloon, Jailhouse, Blacksmiths, Corral, Undertakers, Bank, Gold Mine, and Sheriff's Office. These can be won by playing on any of the games associated with the jackpot, and are awarded randomly, not based on the results of a spin.

My final analysis about High Noon. For the month of January, I deposited a total amount of $1163. Using their bonus deposit codes, I deposit between $25 to $77 almost daily. My experience is that if you play daily at a casino, odds are that you will eventually get lucky even if that means only to clear the wagering requirements. High Noon was the first casino that I ever played at that defied the odds. For the whole month I played, I did not meet the wagering requirement not even once for any of my deposits. I am not sure what their payout percentage is, but chances are it is extremely low.

The casino has informed me that the payment processor has issued a refund for the missing $21.

Hi frankboil. The trouble is (and let me be clear that I am not saying that this is what you did, just explaining what may be the casino's POV) that this casino gives away a $60 free chip to everyone that signs up. There are people who sign up multiple times using different addresses each time in order to claim the freebie, then only try to withdraw on the accounts that they win on. So when a player says oh sorry I made a mistake on my address I just need to change it before you pay me, its a big red flag and they are immediately suspicious.
