Each operating casino will have a variety of bonuses and promotions that can enhance our experience. You will start with an impressive welcome bonus that can offer free cash (match bonus) and even free spins on leading slots. The best casinos will have ongoing promotions that can offer reload bonuses, cash back on losses, referral rewards, free spins, and more. Sites will also have loyalty programs (for high rollers) where you earn points for playing real money games. These can be exchanged for casino bonus cash and you will benefit from additional perks based on the number of loyalty points accrued. We do not recommend using a bonus code as the landing page of the casino does offer a better deal most of the times. Please remind that a welcome bonus is a one time thing for new players, you can't re-register and claim it again.

Good news – prosecution by a US state against an online gambler is a very rare event. I can find just two cases where an online gambler broke an existing law, and both come from politically-conservative states. A man in North Dakota was charged with illegal online gambling in 2003 and paid a fine of $500. Another case, involving a sports bettor in Oklahoma, resulted in long-term probation. Neither bettor spent time in jail – though probation and fees are a pain in the butt, they're a fair sight better than a prison sentence.
