There are loads of online bookmakers these days. But, there probably isn't anywhere that lists all bookmakers that are licensed and available in the UK online. Until now that is! We have undertaken the process of compiling all betting sites available to UK punters together in one place. That place is right here. Check out the table below for the ultimate bookmakers list.

Our team of experts have put together this wonderful UK betting sites list and following on from this you can find all of the best betting sites in the UK on one page, so everything is all in a single place for you to assess.

Sports mrgreen

What you will be pleased to know is that this list of online bookmakers only contains operators that are fully licensed and regulated. The UKGC has approved every single one, and you can see the list below.

As you can see this is a comprehensive UK betting sites list. All of these bookmakers have been approved by the relevant authorities to operate in this jurisdiction. It is always important to play with a licensed bookie.

Mrgreen sports

As you have seen, there are numerous operators that ply their trade in the UK market. Not all of them rank the same, and that is why we have decided to bring you our list of top 10 amongst all bookmakers by category.

As you can see, there is an ocean of bookmakers available to choose from. While choice is a good thing, the process and decision is not easy. One man's trash is another man's treasure. To help you with choosing the right betting site for you, we've outlined some essential elements that all bookies have, in one form or another, in this review.

Mrgreen sports

As you have seen in our list of betting sites, the bonus is often the first thing that attracts a punter to a specific site, and a good bonus is key. It's not just the amount you have to pay attention to, but the wagering requirements and time limits. The best betting bonuses let you win and withdraw immediately. Types of offers include free bets, enhanced odds, or money back promotions.

How a bookmaker presents itself through a mobile app is essential to the modern-day punter. All bookies should strive to provide the best user experience, this means intuitive apps that react to the user's needs and makes betting on the go an easy process.

Mrgreen sports

Another important aspect in our review of all betting sites, is what kind of payment options are allowed. It is no longer no use just to offer a debit card, e-wallets are now often part of the equation and without a broad range many punters will decide to go elsewhere.

If a live betting site offers a streaming service, then it instantly goes up in the punter's eyes. There is nothing better than being able to watch what you are betting on, thus a bookmaker that offers a wide variety of streams is one that will score highly in our ranking system and online bookies list.

Mrgreen sports

In this day and age, a cash out option is also very important in our rating. Most sites do offer this, and since its invention it has become a popular tool for every punter to use. It gives you the power to feel as though you can beat the bookie by closing your bet before the game finishes. It's a great option and an essential part of today's offering.

By analysing bookmakers' performance on each of these criteria we were able to come up with overall ratings for how good a bookie's offering is. For those of you with more general, non-specific needs, you can simply check out which bookmakers perform well overall in our list of betting sites UK in this review.

Mrgreen sports

We have taken things one step further to compile our overall ratings of all sportsbooks in this UK bookies list. Alongside the above criteria, we analysed and rated all betting sites on other criteria too. Things like betting markets, odds, and other essential things such as security are all important parts of a top betting site. Check out the full list of betting criteria below.

Betting sites will often specialize in different areas or sports. If you're a football fan then you can rest assured that almost all bookmakers will have your back. But some operators will focus on other sports to stand out from the crowd, and that means that fans of betting on say tennis or rugby can head to specific operators for these sports. Check out the table below for some of our reviews on specific sports pages.

Mrgreen sports

As you can see, if you click on the pages, different operators perform differently when it comes to sports. To come up with these rankings and list of betting sites, we looked at the betting markets an operator offered for the sport, how good the odds and payouts were – we used our betting calculator – whether there were sport-specific promotions, and numerous other factors.

We generally recommend registering at a number of bookmakers and even an exchange site. There are many reasons for this. Firstly, you can take advantage of all the different welcome bonuses available and play through them. But there are other reasons too. By having access to multiple operators, you can quickly shop around for the best prices for your selections, to make sure you're always getting the best payout.

Sports mrgreen

You can also be sure to find the betting market you want on the sport you want quickly and easily. This saves time, especially when betting live when every second counts. At the end of the day, the more choice you have the better equipped you will be.

Quality should always come first in sports betting and our reviews reflect that. While we recommend signing up to many platforms, most punters quickly find their favourite, or prefer to use two or three. It's totally fine to stick to what you know! But as we said above, shopping around a little and using our online bookies list can ensure that you are always getting the best price and will therefore maximise your winnings. And that's not to mention the welcome offers you can take advantage of. Quality is key then, but at least a small number of options has many advantages.

Sports mrgreen

As with any business venture, sometimes things don't go as planned or companies move in a different direction. This is the same in the sports betting industry. Some of the operators we previously featured here in our list of online bookmakers no longer operate in the UK or have simply stopped their sportsbook offering. You can find these listed in the table below, and the reason for it.

We only ever bring you fully licensed and regulated bookmakers that we also deem to be quality. You're safe with our UK bookies list then, but there are some bookmakers out there you should avoid. The UK Gambling Commission (UKGC) will blacklist sportsbook operating illegally, so avoid these, as well as any you find that don't have the UKGC's logo on their website.

Sports mrgreen

Those operators will be unsafe to play at, but it is also illegal, since they are not licensed and regulated in the UK. Those operators carry with them the risk of scams. There have been stories of players unable to withdraw their winnings, or of peoples' money simply being stolen. Be careful and stick with our betting sites list.

Self-exclusion from gambling sites has become a hot topic in recent years. The UK has set up its own national self-exclusion tool, GamStop, which should enable players to exclude themselves from all sites automatically. The tool is still in its infancy, but it will become a UKGC licensing condition that bookmakers take part in the scheme in future.

Mrgreen sports

As we mentioned above, GamStop is a national self-exclusion tool that is designed to work across all partaking online gambling sites. Operators are also legally required to offer their own tools for self-exclusion, so if you want to ban yourself from a single operator, you can do so easily. Even debit card companies are starting to launch services blocking gambling transactions. Barclay was the first to do so, but three more UK banks have now followed suit.

GamStop is an online website and tool that allows you to put controls in place to restrict your online gambling activities. By doing a 'self-exclusion' you will be prevented from using and gambling sites, or apps, by companies licensed in the UK.

Mrgreen sports

If you want to block yourself from online sportsbooks then we want to help. The following sections will detail different ways in which you can block yourself via PC and your mobile phone quickly and easily.

You can access the websites of bookmakers to block yourself or you can use the GamStop online site. Either way, the process is now quick and easy, and the results should be almost instantaneous.

This piece of software allows the user to block and filter internet content accessed on a computer. It is generally marketed towards parents and is seen as a tool to protect vulnerable users. It blocks sites by content rather than URL (although you can still do this).

CYBERsitter for Windows is a content filter designed for businesses, schools, libraries, and home use. It can block all kinds of inappropriate content and it also comes with a lifetime filter updates, so you can use it long-term.

Mrgreen sports

GamBlock is a piece of software that specifically targets all kinds of gambling and blocks the websites. It can be used privately and commercially and has been available to use since 2000.

Betfilter has over 100,000 downloads and an anti-gambling piece of software. It blocks access to online sites, servers, and applications. It can be used for self-exclusion or to help control access on home computers.

Sports mrgreen

Like many others things, betting is taking place increasingly via mobile phones. Excluding yourself via mobile is easy, check out the boxes below for more details.

Qustodia is a content filter app, designed specifically for mobile phones. Usually it is used by parents who want to protect their children's usage online and can be used against a wide variety of online threats. There is both a free and premium version available to use.

Sports mrgreen

Gamban is a technical solution for blocking all gambling sites on your phone. With this app you can impose a self-exclusion with an easy to use app that can be utilised by anyone. Its sole purpose is to block gambling sites and nothing else.

There are many important organisations when it comes to gambling in the UK. As the industry's regulator, the UK Gambling Commission is probably the most important. However, it's not the only big player.

Sports mrgreen

UK Gambling Commission The UK Gambling Commission is the regulator for the gambling industry in the UK. The Commission is responsible for the licensing process for bookmakers, as well as creating a framework they must follow. The Commission enforces its policies and can fine operators who are found to have not complied with British gambling law.

IBAS The Independent Betting Adjudication Service (IBAS) is a dispute resolution body that acts in instances of disputes between consumers and bookmakers. If a consumer can not settle a dispute with an operator, for example around payment for a bet, then they can turn to IBAS for an independent resolution service. IBAS is approved by the UKGC.

EGBA The European Gaming and Betting Association is based in Brussels and is the industry body representing operators. The group's mission is to promote a safe digital environment for players in Europe. To do this, it works with national and EU authorities, as well as other stakeholders, to help direct policy and regulation in the right direction.

ESSA The European Sports Security Association is the body that looks to combat match-fixing in sport and maintain integrity. To do this, the ESSA looks closely at betting activity for signs of suspicious patterns. A core principle of the ESSA is to protect operators and consumers, as well as the bodies that represent sports themselves. The ESSA works together with a number of regulators, including the UK Gambling Commission.

Mrgreen sports

BeGambleAwareGambleAware is an independent charity operating in the UK aimed at reducing gambling-related harms. GambleAware is funded by donations from the industry and is the leading problem gambling charity in the UK. The group raises £8m each year and puts this towards initiatives, education, training programmes, and rehabilitation services for those suffering from gambling-related harm.

We have also shown you how you can also self-exclude and the many options that are available to you in this regard.

Now that you have read through our UK betting sites list, we have surely answered all of your questions. If not, look at some of our more frequently asked ones below. If you have any further inquiries then don't hesitate to contact us!

Mrgreen sports

Betting sites will allow some overseas players but not all. This depends on where the consumer is based. Most European countries will be allowed, but many others aren't. Always check an operator's terms and conditions if in doubt, and avoid certain sites.

There is no right or wrong answer to this as peoples' preferences differ. Read through all the information in our UK betting sites list displayed on this page to inform yourself about which bookie does what best, and then make your decision based on this info. Our list of betting sites UK is a good starting point.

Mrgreen sports

Gambling sites are externally regulated and there are also agencies and bodies that ensure integrity within sports betting, some of which we have listed above. Sports betting also revolves around the results of sports, unlike poker or casino games, so sportsbooks cannot influence those results.

Bookmakers are legal in the UK as long as they are licensed to operate there by the UK Gambling Commission. Bookmakers must apply for a licence and meet lots of strict criteria to be awarded their licence. There are bookmakers that are not based in the UK that may try to offer their services to UK consumers, however. Make sure that the online betting site you are using features the Gambling Commission's logo on its site, as that ensures it is properly licensed and a legal operator.

BestBettingSites.com is a comparison website that strives to provide fair and safe information in the online betting and gambling world. We receive a commission for the products on offer, but this does not affect our reviews or transparency in any way.

The colourful Mr Green Casino has recently launched their sportsbook and Freebets.com are amongst the first to review one of the UK's newest online sportsbooks.

Sports mrgreen

Surprisingly there is no Mr Green Sport free bet for new sports bettors at the site which has been voted the 'Online Casino of the Year' multiple times. However new customers can take full advantage of up to €350 in deposit bonuses and 420 free spins within the popular casino.

Our Mr Green Sport review can confirm that if you desire a vast selection of betting markets, place a massive tick on your wish list! No less than 34 sports and 'non-sports' fields are on offer.

Sports mrgreen

And what is most notable, every field is well populated. From the weekend's Premiership football to the Swedish General Elections in 2018 and on to the medal table at the next Winter Olympics, Mr Green Sports has it all. These markets can be found by clicking the 'All Sports' tab at the top right-hand-side of Mr Green Sport homepage.

But Mr Green Sport clearly has a specific purpose, as a welcome message for first time players indicates: "Welcome to the Gentleman's Sportsbook! Mr Green has made it easy to place your bets on the latest sports events and at the same time spin your favourite slots by using our seamless wallet."

Mrgreen sports

And so it is 'Live Betting' where Mr Green excels. Football and tennis top their bill, one presumes because these sports take place somewhere in the world almost 24 hours a day. Furthermore a bet on one of these can tie a player into the site for the duration of the game.

Horse racing is also a headliner at Mr Green Sport. It's been given a prominent tab next to 'Live Betting' and that lists English, Irish and South African meetings. However, connoisseurs will be disappointed by the lack of early prices with only win, each-way and forecast bets on offer.

There could also be a lot more markets on football. But this underlines Mr Green Sport is a market and not a bazaar.

Mrgreen sports

The Mr. Green mobile betting app delivers an experience every part as good as that enjoyed by PC users. You have access to all of Mr. Green Sports betting markets and personal account options (deposit, withdraw, view bet history) on the Mr. Green app.

It is available for iOS users (downloadable at the App Store) and Android users whose device is a 4.1 version or newer and it caters for casino players in addition to Mr. Green sports bettors.

Sports mrgreen

It's a well organised marketplace too. If you are looking for a specific team, league or event Mr Green's sports locator will quickly display all results related to your search. And if you have a question Mr Green Sports Live Chat – just click the question-mark (?) icon in the top right-hand corner of all pages – this gives you prompt access to a customer service representative.

A very simple bet slip is striking. It slides on screen when a selection is made but can be reduced down into the bottom of the page. Sizeable and fool-proof, it offers all multiple bet options – such as doubles and trebles – plus 'exotics' such as Yankees and Canadians.

Mrgreen sports

Another option is the way odds are displayed. A scroll down to the bottom of any page sees you arrive at drop-down menu where 'decimal', 'fractional' and 'American' odds display can be chosen.

But we have kept the best to last for our Mr Green sport review. That's because Mr Green sport have kept their best feature as something of a secret... 'Event Statistics' is surely another one of those big ticks on any punters wish list but, unless you hover your mouse or finger over a 'bar chart' icon at many Mr Green sport pages, you will never know they exist! Exist they do, an impressive array of previous results and stats pop-up on a separate page to help punters make their betting selections.

Sports mrgreen

And so, concluding our Mr Green sports review, we have to describe this newcomer as something of a work in progress. Then again it may well remain simplistic with a purpose to simply entertain Mr Green's established casino players.

Considering getting value for money is the key to winning money long-term as a punter, and given the very useful albeit well-hidden event statistics on offer at Mr Green sports, this is certainly a place worthy of regular visits.

bet365 are one of the biggest betting companies in the world. More people visit their website on any given day than any other bookmaker - they didn't get to this size without providing their users a fair and transparent service.

This extends when it comes to withdrawing money from bet365. It's very easy to get access to the funds in your bet365 account.

Mrgreen sports

The first step is to ensure that the money in your account is not subject to any rollover or wagering requirements. If that's the case, you can withdraw your money by visiting the dedicated area which is accessible by clicking Services > Banking > Withdrawals.

It's worth noting that bet365 will withdraw money via the same payment method that it was deposited. Where that is not possible, the default option is a bank wire transfer. The list of withdrawal options is comprehensive and includes debit and credit Visa and Mastercards, PayPay, Skrill, Neteller, paysafecard and cheques.

Mrgreen sports

Each method has its own minimum and maximum withdrawal amounts and comes with their own terms and conditions which are available on the bet365 site.

Millions of people around the world use online betting as a form of entertainment – with the obvious benefit of being able to win money. There is nothing quite like the thrill of backing a winner but it is incredibly frustrating to have a winning bet only to be forced to wait for your money.

Sports mrgreen

One of the main reasons that bet365 have become such a big player in the world of online betting is the incredibly generous bonus they offer new customers.

Currently, bet365 offer new customers the chance to get their hands on up to £100 in bonus cash. The exact amount of the bonus you are awarded depends on the size of your qualifying bets. That's because bet365 will credit your account with a bonus equal to the value of those qualifying bets up to a maximum of £100.

Mrgreen sports

There are some important terms and conditions for the bet365 bonus. You must claim the offer after making your first deposit, and allow your qualifying bets to be settled. Bet credits will then be added to your account shortly thereafter.

Other important things to note are that the offer is available to just one person, address or IP address, to people who have never had a bet365 account before and strictly to those aged 18+.

Mrgreen sports

There is no messing about with complicated menus or setups when looking for Placepot bets with bet365. The option is right there on the main page of their horse racing page.

One of bet365's greatest features is the Edit Bet option, allowing customers to add to, remove or edit any unsettled bets both before a game and in some cases in-play. With this function you can also change the type of bet.

Mrgreen sports

bet365 have one of the most easy to use and intuitive interfaces of any online bookmaker. That's true whether you are betting via their desktop site or any of their mobile betting options.

To use free bets on Betfred, add selections to your bet slip as usual and enter the stake value of the free bet you'd like to use. Click 'Place Using Free Balance' which will appear at the bottom of the betslip, and confirm your bet by pressing 'Place Bet'.

Yes, Betfred offers many different types of free bets and promotions throughout the year, which can be claimed by existing customers as well as new customers.

You will not need to use a Betfred promo code for the offer on this page if you follow the link. However, if you do wish to use a code to receive the offer, it's: 'SPORTS60'.
