Playing roulette online means staking real money on which number of the wheel you think will win. An automated computer dealer spins the virtual wheel, with a small ball inside it. The ball stops on the winning number on the roulette wheel. Online, you click to place bets on the roulette board for the number(s) you want to choose. If the ball stops on the number you picked – or a range that includes the number – you will win money. The amount you win depends on the odds offered by your bet type.
