In 2014, Android had an 80% share of the smartphone and tablet market and in 2018 just over 75%. That's a huge number, when you consider that Apple has sold hundreds of millions of iPhones and iPads and only accounts for about 15% of the same market. Unlike Apple, Android has an across-the-board policy against apps that allow for real-money betting, but that restriction doesn't matter as much as it sounds like it might, thanks to the availability of instant play gambling apps and sites. (Source: StatCounter Global Stats – OS Market Share)

There are lots of factors that determine which Android casinos are the best. In this section, we have listed the criteria that we use to compare the top Android online casino apps.

Euroking online casino

Choosing an Android online casino is an extensive process. There are lots of factors and features to check out when making your decision to ensure you don't lose out to scam sites. Below are some factors we think you should consider when picking the best Android online casino.

Slots are the most popular online casino games in the industry. The abundance of options is one of the best features of this casino game type. Real money slots come in different categories and themes. You could play the regular titles with huge win potential or go for progressive jackpot slots and get a massive prize. Slot themes make them even more exciting. From movies, comics, celebrities, horrors, and ancient Egypt, to fruits, just about anything can be converted into a slot. You also get the option of playing on different layouts. 3-reel, 5-reel, and 6-reel slots give you different ways to win with every spin.

Keno is a fast-paced card game that you can find at only the best Android online casinos. The game allows you to decide the number of draws, and numbers you want to match from, as well as a multiplier, to increase your win potential. This lottery-style game doesn't come in many variants but is one of the most exciting games to play at online casinos.

Online casino vklad přes sms

The final step in finding your new mobile casino site is to look at the list of options still remaining under a microscope. Look in detail at their library, their promotions, and the way the site works. Design and navigation are important for newcomers, while long-time gamblers maybe more interested in things like referral bonuses or VIP programs.

The next section is designed to help you find a casino that fits your needs and is available to customers using an Android device.

The second step in trimming down your list of Android-friendly mobile sites is to identify what kind of games you want to play and focus on sites that offer them. This is particularly important if you are a fan of a particular table game, since mobile libraries tend to have slim table game pickings. If, on the other hand, you're a slots fan, you'll have a huge number of sites to pick from in this category. This has as much to do with a casino's choice of software as anything else – identifying a software producer whose games you like will get you pretty far toward finding a new home for your mobile gambling.
