If you have been wondering why it is so popular and want to give it a try, then you have come to the right place! In this Spartacus online slot review, we uncover the features, bonuses, jackpots, and so much more!

Game casino online spartacus

Spartacus is among the most favored online slots and the second colossal reel by WMS. This brand-new title truly stands out for bringing the finest playstyle. The game has not one but two separate reels; one with a 5×4 grid, and the second with a 5×12 grid. Spartacus also has other bonus features such as stacked symbols to amplify your potential of winning big. In addition, US players get to enjoy the Spartacus slots jackpot which pays 10x your wager if you manage to land five wild symbols.

Unlike most games, the Spartacus online slot features two sets of reels, which can be played with the same bet. The first set is the standard 5 reels and 4 rows, while the colossal reel has 12 rows. For the two sets, you can wager up to 100 paylines. The coin bet range starts from as little as $0.01 to $5, whereas the maximum bet is from $0.01 up to $250. This means all sorts of players can enjoy the game and not just the high rollers.

The 'Spin' button, as with any other online slots game, sets the reels in motion. The Spartacus online slot game, however, does not have the automatic spin option. And before you start spinning the reels, you will need to select your bet size.

Spartacus follows a theme of the Roman gladiator rebellion which happened between 73 and 71 BC. The style suits the timeline, with an olden-day feel that has a modern twist. Both reels in the game share similar symbols, although some are diversified. The icons are stacked in four different positions on the main reels, while on the second set they are in eight positions and appear to be larger. If an entire reel becomes filled with stacked wilds on the main set, they get projected to the colossal to form another wild reel.

This game is unique owing to the two sets of reels that dominate the screen.

The symbols in the game range from high-value to low-value icons. You will find a lion, sword, helmet, Spartacus himself, and two other gladiators as the highest-paying symbols. Whereas the spade, heart, purple club, and pink diamond are the low-value symbols.

Spartacus is the wild symbol that substitutes for all other symbols in the game except the scatter, which is the Colosseum symbol.

Spartacus is full of bonus features which include stacked symbols, wilds, and free spins.

Stacked Wilds – Here, the Spartacus wild symbols cover the whole reel on smaller sets of reels. The same thing will happen on the corresponding reel of the Colossal set, setting you up for even bigger wins.

Stacked Symbols – Symbols are stacked to offer an opportunity to form winning combinations. What this means is that they will appear on the reels loaded on top of each other but not as an extra feature like the stacked wilds.

Free Spins – The free spins feature is activated by landing the scatter symbol on either reel; one, three, and five. Landing three Colosseum symbols will award eight free spins and multiply 2x your stake, whereas four of them will award 12 free spins and 5x multiplier, while five returns 20 free spins and multiplies by 20x your initial stake.

Oh, Rome! With its grand Colosseum, gladiators, architectural beauty, and the story of the legendary Spartacus, it's no wonder that game developer powerhouse WMS felt inspired to bring this ancient city to the world of slot machines.

Spartacus was a warrior turned slave forced to fight as a gladiator who led a revolt with his fellow captives by fighting their way to freedom initially only armed with kitchen utensils. After taking weapons from their disarmed foe, they defeated battalion after battalion sent after them at their stronghold on Mount Vesuvius. Spartacus was the ultimate rebel inspiring freedom fighters everywhere.

WMS captures the mystery and beauty of Ancient Rome in the breathtaking Colossal, Spartacus slot machine, which features two sets of reels and 100 pay lines. Come and join Spartacus in his journey to fight for his freedom.

First off, let's just talk about how beautiful this game is. The graphics are amazing, not just inside the game itself because of the symbols, but also the frame around the reel sets. It truly is a work of art. The main symbol, Spartacus himself, looks like a renaissance painting with a crested, golden helmet, decorative shield, glistening sword, and a bold, red tunic.

Likely due to being mindful of gender equality, WMS included a secondary symbol that is a female gladiator, equally stunning in its artistry. Even if you get the alternating male and female symbols blocking you from a win, it is still a sight to behold.

An even better sight is getting four or five of the Spartacus or the female gladiator symbols aligned in a row which triggers a deep, dynamic voice to say "Fantastic" and gives you a significant win.

The Spartacus game is a Colossal game, which means it has one set of reels that is five reels and four rows and a second set that is five reels and a whopping 12 rows. It is colossal, hence the name. The two sets of reels have a combined total of 100 pay lines. The game play is similar between the two reel sets, but not exactly the same.

For one, the highest paying symbols, Spartacus and the female gladiator, are large symbols filling the reel in the 5×4 reel set and even larger in the 5×12 Colossal reel set, filling eight spaces of the reel.

Also, when the wild symbol fills the reel in the 5×4 reel set, it transfers over and fills the corresponding reel in the 5×12 reel set, replacing whatever symbols appeared there except for the feature symbol. The other symbols stack on the Colossal reel side anywhere from four to eight in a row down the length of the reel, depending on the symbol. Symbols that can be found in the game include:

During game play, the sounds of fighting gladiators, crowds yelling, and clashing swords play in the background along with those familiar WMS jingles that signify various wins. The Colosseum symbol acts as the feature symbol and appears only on reels one, three, and five of either reel set allowing you to have a total of five feature symbols in one spin which triggers the bonus feature.

When you land three Colosseum symbols, this triggers the bonus feature giving you eight spins. Four Colosseum symbols will give you 12 spins, and five symbols will give you 20 spins. Three or more Colosseum symbols appearing during the bonus round retrigger even more spins. All wins double during the bonus round.

Any wild symbol that appears in the 5×4 reel set during the bonus expands to fill the reel causing it to transfer to the Colossal reel set side. The bonus round has an energetic, pounding soundtrack reminiscent of a Hollywood film score. All of these features combined make the bonus rounds very exciting.

This WMS video slot comes with 5 reels and two boards – one with 4 and the other with 12 rows. With a total of 100 pay lines, any gambler has a good chance to win. The theme of the game is based on the legend of Spartacus, the Thracian gladiator, much known for the yells of "Sparta" from a movie everyone at least has heard of.

Yet this is no movie-themed slot game. It is somewhere in the middle of Hollywood images and comic book pictures. While there is no overall jackpot for the game, a player can enjoy a very favorable return of 95.94% with bets starting as low as 0.5.

The WMS software developer, Williams Interactive in full, have been on the slot market for a while now and were among the oldies, who moved the traditional Vegas slots into the realm of the Internet. Now even more can play and give their innovative payouts a try. No need to play for real cash right away though. There is a great demo version perfect for those wanting to give practice mode a try before putting real money on the line.

As for the game symbols, we have the main hero – Spartacus together with some female gladiators at the Colosseum. These heroes are then accompanied by all they may need in battle: shields, helmets, swords and even lions. Add the game's logo and a few card suits and we've got ourselves a full house.

Online casino spartacus game

While playing this slot machine, you can expect the usual – game's logo as a wild card with scatter capabilities. To trigger the free spins feature, one must remember that this can be done by collecting 3+ Colosseums. The more scatters trigger this, the more free spins you get. The least you can get is 8 spins and double your bet for 3 scatters, the most – 20 plus 20 times your bet for 5 collected scatters.

Regardless of the budget you may have, this game works for everyone as the size of bets ranges from 0.5 up to a big 250 coins when selecting all the 100 available pay lines. The highest payout of 1250 coins is awarded for 5 Spartacus symbols.
