The Diamond Casino Heist is the biggest ever to hit GTA Online, and requires drawing up meticulous setup plans to walk away with the maximum payout. Here's a run-down of the setup board for the Diamond Casino Heist in GTA Online so you can beat the house.

Online casino vault

There are multiple different preparation options for you to choose from at nearly every stage of setup for the Diamond Casino Heist - from when you're casing the joint to when you're breaking into the vault.

The first time you successfully run the Heist is free. But you'll have to pay to play thereafter.

If you're just beginning, to start the Heist first time you need to visit Lester in Mirror Park, then buy an arcade property. We have a full page on what you need to do, here.

Next head over to your new digs and a cutscene will play and you'll be able to begin the first set up missions by walking over to the laptop in the empty arcade basement.

Interacting with the laptop launches the first setup mission - Arcade Equipment - where you track down some initial kit for your hideout.

Make your way to the Post Op Depository and chase down the jacked truck. Take out the drivers and schlep back to your arcade.

On your return another cutscene plays where Lester runs through the prospective plan in three parts: scope, prepping, score. He also briefly goes over the three ways that you can play the heist: stealthy, aggressive, or "the big con".

These are all optional objectives that give you more options when you're infiltrating the casino. Scoping is split into two missions, scope out the casino and scope out the vault contents.

You can scope all of the access points in scoping the casino, but you can only get the first six points of interest. The others are gathered from the separate scout "vault contents" mission.

Here's a picture of the sewer grate you're looking for:

To find these you need to move between the different camera views in the time allotted.

Finding these allows you to buy extras from your set up board, letting you find access points easier, or practise the skills you'll need on the inside.

Now that you've earmarked your possible points of entry, it's time to choose your approach.

They're pretty self explanatory: Aggressive means you hit the casino hard and violently, Silent relies on clandestine stealth, while the Big Con goes full Ocean's Eleven with disguises and subterfuge.

All of the routes require a similar amount of prep, so choose whichever you like the look of most - you can always play the others later.

If you're a fan of GTA Online's combat, then this is the approach for you. It involves fighting the casino security all the way through the building and using thermal charges to blow the vault open as well as the locked doors inside.

Casino vault online

It has six mandatory set up missions, and seven optional with a further locked objective.

In this approach you don a disguise to get inside the casino, then sneak your way to the vault, drill it open, then grab as much as you can carry and fight your way out.

Online casino vault

This is probably the most changeable approach, because you can find different entrance disguises and your plan changes quite a lot based on your entry point.

Through optional setup missions you can plan multiple disguises to get you out of the casino as well.

Vault casino online

This is probably the toughest of the three to pull off successfully. It involves sneaking into the building with silenced pistols without getting caught, before drilling open the vault with a laser and avoiding security cameras to ride off into the sunset.

As with the others, there are six setup missions you have to do, with eight optional ones.

Your optional missions are the same as the Big Con, except that you can find an infiltration suit and steal an EMP instead of getting an exit disguise.

Once you've chosen your approach, it's time to get to work. Remember you can pay to skip certain missions, but not all of them.

Completing all of the optional set up missions gives you the best chance of success, but is not 100% necessary. Their main purpose is to give you options for when things go sideways during the job - so if you're unsure of your plan, make up for it by being prepared.

Your support crew for the Diamond Casino Heist consists of a gunman, driver, and hacker.

These basically determine the difficulty level of the heist itself.

While a better driver will get you better cars once you make a break for it.

Finally, a better hacker will give you more time in the vault without being detected.

Better support crews come at a higher cut of the total take, and some are more worth it than others. For instance, you'll definitely want as much time in the vault as possible, so picking an expert hacker is an easy choice. But if you're not planning on being detected, then top tier guns are a waste.

Take into account your overall approach and choose what fits your style.

It's what you're here for after all. The total potential take in cash for one run of the Diamond Casino Heist is $2,115,000.

However, you won't get all of that. Lester takes a small cut, then your support crew all take their allotted piece. There are then optional extras you can buy to help take the heat off of you in the getaway.

Then you actually have to steal and make off with all the money. Any damage you take inside the casino also reduces your take as you drop notes. This means that the rough player take can be anywhere from $400,000 to $1,750,000.

According to @TezFunz2 on Twitter, who's a reliable source for GTA and RDR2 Online updates, there are four possible random rewards for the Heist in the game's files - each with their own cap. Diamonds however are not yet available.

There are 4 casino heist vault contents. What determine which one you get is random. Cash - $2,115,000 Artwork - $2,350,000 Gold - $2,585,000 Diamonds - $3,290,000 As of now, there's no way to get the Diamonds, most likely being kept for a special event. #GTAOnline
