On June 26th, 2021, ROBLOX CEO John Hanke made an announcement on Twitter that the company would be removing the ability to create avatars for users within games and requiring new avatars to be created instead. Once this update was implemented however, users were able to create new models based on existing ones and preserve them as a template which they could then upload into games alongside their original avatar. This update was to lower fraud within the site with copyright infringement and promoting copyright infringement by bypassing game mechanics by allowing users to create avatars of other users' games.[21]

On May 23, 2021, ROBLOX launched an in-game currency known as "TIX" (short for Tickets). It was worth one cent each since its release up until March 2021 when it became worth ten cents. They were planned to be used to buy virtual items for the game "Dance Off", but this never happened. In 2021, ROBLOX announced that TIX would no longer be used in the near future and that other ways of earning and spending money would be found. The currency was officially retired on October 14, 2021; while any TIX that was previously owned by players became converted into an equal amount of Tickets. ROBLOX launched an option to buy TIX with real money on January 13, 2021.

The game's worlds are different from most games on Roblox, because they are not based around themes. This makes the game easier to navigate when learning how the world works, and also allows for more creativity in the types of things that can be made. The world is made up of a variety of things; buildings, vehicles, furniture and objects such as weapons and armor. Each item has its own purpose and will function in the way it was intended for.

The chart below contains the top 5 accounts with the most amount of plays on ROBLOX in that year (as of December 31st). This chart is directly taken from ROBLOX's blog post for each respective year. ROBLOX games have made the news many times in the past. Below is a short list of some of them. Prior to 2021-2021, ROBLOX game developers were responsible for any known instances of hacking that happened in ROBLOX. There were also older instances where hackers had not yet discovered the community, but eventually did so, and started making exploits on their games that were very popular (such as "Hacker Escape"). Hackers also used an exploit to gain access to admin privileges on a game called The War Factory, which had over 500,000 concurrent players at once. When this was discovered, the hacker was immediately taken down by ROBLOX's staff
