Moderators monitor Roblox for inappropriate content like violence, nudity, profanity and copyright infringement. Moderators have the ability to mute, ban, or delete users from a game. Players can also report other players for inappropriate behaviour. In addition, moderators are expected to help players in need with moderation and issue resolution.

In August 2017, a former employee posted a blog post detailing the company's "toxic" work culture and poor working conditions. The employee claimed that she was fired after speaking out about these issues and later filed a wrongful termination lawsuit against the company as well as several co-workers associated with her firing. The suit, which for the most part was dismissed, claimed that former CEO David Baszucki played an integral role in her firing as he forced the team to "ignore basic standards of professionalism". It also cited him for saying that "female workers in [his] office and in the tech industry were 'annoying' and should not serve in a high-ranking position."

Another way that allows users to get free robux for Roblox is through surveys. There are many websites and apps that allow users to complete surveys in exchange for free robux. However, you can never go wrong with a survey. Since there are so many available, you should take advantage of these opportunities to get free robux.
