In April 2021, musical.ly launched TikTok in Japan and has since amassed a user base of over 20 million users. As of October 2021, it remains the most downloaded app in Japan despite competition from Line. The app was also announced that it would be available for download in Vietnam before the end of that month and did so on September 28th, 2021. Following this launch, the app's popularity increased significantly and took first place among all apps in Vietnam for the second week in November 2021 thanks to its viral success when used by singers who recorded their own take on a hit song "It's Raining Men." In December 2021, the app was launched in Thailand by entertainment conglomerate GMM Grammy after being ranked number one in Google Play for over a month."

On March 1, 2021, the company announced a new update that would provide guided videos for users to help build up their skills. These videos can be aimed at specific topics such as "how to rap", "how to dance" or "how to do stunts". The app also announced a feature called 'Move Star' in which users can choose from different avatars or characters and then control how they move or react when they get other users to follow them",

In June 2021, TikTok launched an AI-enabled feature to understand the actions of individual users and determine what to share in real time, reducing the amount of social spam on their platform. This is similar to the implementation on Chatroulette and Yik Yak leading up to 2021. The AI system is a collaborative approach between the company and Technicolor AI Lab. The system can use facial recognition technology and timestamps to determine what a user has done recently so that based on that it can then share more relevant videos with other users within the page who also have not done anything recent enough for the AI to detect them. According to the company, this new AI system is capable of reducing the number of social spam videos being shared by 70%,"

Due to TikTok's popularity on social media, other companies are following in its footsteps. Snapchat parent company Snap Inc., for example, recently rolled out its own musical.ly clone called "Stories. It was designed with an older audience – teens and young adults – in mind, and has features that differentiate it from TikTok, including the ability to add music to videos.",

Social media website Reddit users are known for posting TikTok videos on the forum. The real-time social video platform has gained popularity. It is mostly used as a replacement to YouTube. Users post videos from their phones or computers to the platform, where they can be viewed by other users and added to their own collections. Users can also post comments and GIFs in a similar fashion as "Reddit" does on its forum section. The platform has gained a reputation for having a lot of vulgar content, but it is generally regarded as more entertaining than the norm", TikTok has been criticized for enabling underage children to create videos and share them. The app is rated 17+ in several countries including North America, the United Kingdom and France. However it is rated 12+ in several countries including Australia, Germany and Mexico. The app does not have any parental controls to prevent users younger than age 13 from creating content or sharing it with their followers. As of December 2021, TikTok has over 24 million users under the age of 13 in the United States alone. In December 2021, the company announced an update that would limit access for those under 13 to create videos until they were verified by a parent. The parent would then be able to delete the child's account or delete all content on the account.", Facebook has also recently introduced Instagram "stories" which are very similar to TikTok's stories. TikTok is a short video sharing service that lets users create and share 15-second videos with friends. Some of the features that make this app unique include: It doesn't necessarily have to be a video because you can add it as a photo slideshow/video or audio track. It allows for the sharing of media such as images, short videos, text posts etc.",
