For example, Jailbreak offers a premium feature which allows players to purchase more life points. As the game is free, there is no way for them to gain XP in the traditional sense. Instead of implementing XP via cash or coin drop-rates (as would be done in a game that relies on premium features), they offer more life points as a way to make it easier for players if they choose to purchase them. Free games also don't have an option of offering premium features that modify their economies or XP systems. Therefore, they usually offer only the default system as an option for non-Premium members.

As you can see from the image above, the most reliable way of getting free robux is by doing the missions which are listed under tasks. These missions are very fun to complete and they can be quite challenging as well. You have to complete a certain amount of these missions in a specific time frame. You can also do your friends' tasks and earn rewards for it. The task will reward you with different amounts of robux. Generally, you will earn around 50-100 Robux for completing a task which is equivalent to 3 testings on Roblox which otherwise costs 1 Robux each time. So it is obvious that you should complete as many tasks as possible.

The inventory of each user cannot be accessed by anyone else. If you want to find out what a piece of furniture is for, you are going to have to purchase it from your inventory. There is no sharing of items between users; they can only be found in your own private stash.
