On August 31, 2017, there was a large lawsuit that ROBLOX was involved in. The user "Bella Thorne" had an unverified account that was deleted by ROBLOX due to copyright claims, although these claims were proven false. Then, the account was deleted and the user made a video about how her account got taken down, where she shows screen caps of some users who hate her on the website, as well as saying several bad words such as foul language and racial slurs.

It's hard for players who are older or younger (because of the increasing costs) to get some points because it takes a lot of effort just for 1 point. Some fields require money that most players cannot pay for. You can easily see this in the game's world:

There are also individuals who try to steal the identity of other users by scamming them through fake free robux videos. These individuals may use other sources in order to get hold of the scripts of these software and modify it in such a way that they get a slice of the profit once it is used by other people.

This one is a really annoying method to get free robux but what you can do is take advantage of the events. If there is an event, then you should grab your friends and start playing as well. Once you play for a certain amount of time, then you will get a lot of free robux. The more friends that are playing during the event, the more free robux you will be getting.

In a response, Roblox stated that the employee who did this was dismissed after a thorough investigation and that they are committed to making improvements to their workplace environment. Chris Misner also stated that she suffered retaliation from other Roblox employees for contacting the media and posting about her experiences with the company.
